

Workshop 2 for Week 3

1. Quick Quiz:

- 1.1 Which statement describes what an organization wants to become?
 - a. Values statement
 - b. Vision statement
 - c. Mission statement
 - d. Aspiration statement
 - 1.2 Which statement describes what an organization does and for whom?
 - a. Values statement
 - b. Vision statement
 - c. Mission statement
 - d. Aspiration statement
 - 1.3 True or False: Strategic planning lays out the long term direction to be taken by an organization.
 - 1.4 Which is higher up (closer to the strategic plan) in the planning chain: the tactical plan or the operational plan?
 - 1.5 What are the elements of a strategic plan?
 - 1.6 True or False: The National Center for Corporate Direction has established essential practices relating to information security for boards of directors.
 - 1.7 Which is not a benefit of information security governance?
 - a. Increase in shareholder value
 - b. Increased predictability of business operations
 - c. Optimization of limited security resources
 - d. Reduction in the total amount of private data needed to keep on file
 - 1.8 True or False: One aspect of an information security governance framework is an information security risk management methodology.
 - 1.9 What is another name for the governance framework recommended by the CGTF?
 - 1.10 Which is more likely to succeed, a top-down or a bottom-up approach to information security planning?
2. What is planning? How does an organization determine if planning is necessary?

CSIT988 Security, Ethics and Professionalism

3. What is InfoSec governance? What are the five basic outcomes that should be achieved through InfoSec governance?
4. Describe top-down strategic planning. How does it differ from bottom-up strategic planning? Which is usually more effective in implementing security in a large, diverse organization?
5. Give examples of the common technical attacks mentioned in this chapter.